Description of Property and Eligibility Determination: (Use continuation sheet if necessary and attach map and photo)

The Atlantic Red Star station is a rare example in Worcester County of Colonial Revival design as it was adapted to gas stations during the early twentieth century. Built with a substantial slate roof, the brick structure boasts a pedimented entrance and a Palladian window in one gable end. The station stands on the corner of Market and Front streets next to the Duncan Brothers' garage. The two Colonial Revival inspired buildings complement one another and contribute to the historic nature of Pocomoke City's commercial district.
